A NOBLE INSTITUTION. The New St. Peter's Orphan Asylum

olics who feel an interest in having a proper inclosure placed around the old Cetholic graveyard on Henry avenue, as also in having the place deceutly cared for in future, at the Fireman's Hall, corner of Second and Adams streets, Wednesday night Sunday evening a party of fifty or seventy-five ladies and gentlemen, representing the St. Peter's Orphanage Association, and the visited the new asylum, about two and a half miles out on the Poplar street boulevard, to inspect the improvements and look into the management of the new institution. The asylum is in charge of Sister Mary Joseph, assisted by three other Sisters of the Dominican order, and is a model institution of its kind. In addition to the original building, formerly the residence of Colonel M. J. Wicks, which is of itself very large and spacious, there has been added a two-story frame house, forty by sixty feet, which is used as a dormitory for the children. The arrangement of this department is very neat and tidy, both up and down stairs, the upper floor for the girls and the lower for the boys. This building is to the right and east at 8 o'clock. Let there be a full attendance. -Tipton county is proverbial for its fruitwhat it is doing this season in splendid ears of heavy wheat, and also of fine barley grown by John B. Kinton, Esq., who has raised thirty acres of those grains, with a yield of from thirty to forty bushels an acre. It is a pleasure to note such industrial progress in Tennessee. This building is to the right and east of the main structure. To the left a good-sized schoolroom has been added, thirty by sixty feet, nicely fitted up, where the children receive six hours instruction per day by the Sisters; three hours in the morning and three in the afternoon. Next to the school-room is a cottage, also ville and Indianapolis in the military drills.

This decision was reached because of the committee who were selected by the company to get the team in camp on next Wednesday, seventy-five feet, which, when completed, will be a perfect little church. The workmen are now putting on the finishing touches.
The grounds consist of twenty-four acres, fronting on McLean avenue and the Poplar boulevard, tastefully laid off in beautiful walks, with ornamental shrubbery, flowers, statuary, etc. About fifteen acres are under cultivation, and will more than furnish suffizient vegetables for the use of the asylum, together with a large quantity of fine fruit. The whole aspect is pleasing, and presents a very neat, tasty and home-like appearance. There are at present about seventy-five chil-dren at the institution, from six months to fourteen years of age, the great majority ranging from three to six. They are all neatly and comfortably clad, and a brighter, happier set of children it would be hard to find. During the evening, after vespers, in the open air, Father Kelly, of St. Peter's, officiating, the children entertained the vis-itors for an hour or more with songs and speeches, after which the visitors left, highly presend with the institution its heeality and pleased with the institution, its locality and management. It may be well to state in this connection that St. Peter's Asylum is supported entirely by charity, its greates ource of revenue being the Fourth of July picnic, which takes place as usual this year at Fitzgibbon's grove. That some slight idea may be gained of the good this charity has done for Memphis, it might be said that St. Peter's Asylum was established by Father Grace, now Bishop Grace, of Minneapolis, Minn, in 1852, and since its organization nearly, if not quite, 3000 children have been cared for. The institution is under the immediate supervision of Father Kelly, who deserves great credit for the good work he has done.
